

The Big Picture

- Dynamic leaders see the “big picture” as well as details. They have a vision that inspires them to set and reach goals.
- A vision is an ultimate or ideal situation you want to bring about. A vision statement clearly describes your direction.

---

*“Vision is to individuals and organizations
what sunlight is to the plant.
The plant grows toward the sunlight.
We grow toward the vision.”*

—Patty Hendrickson

---

I can increase my success as a dynamic leader by defining my vision.
Here’s my vision for leadership in:

FCCLA: _____

_____

Family: _____

_____

Career: _____

_____

Community: _____

_____

- Goals are stepping stones to my vision.
I can make step-by-step plans to work toward the vision I want to achieve.

